

HERITAGE SOCIETY OF AUSTIN

Lamar Area Hunt

Your Name

Address:

Phone:

Location	Photo	Address/website	Hours of Operation	Admission	Question
1 Moore-Hancock House The Moore-Hancock Farmstead is a rare surviving example of an early Austin pioneer farm and residence		4811 Sinclair Ave (private residence, please do not disturb the residents or their pets	Not open to public	NA	1. What is the original size of the farmstead? 2. What year was the farmstead restored?
2 Hill-berts Hamburgers This is a great place for a classic hamburger and shake. Hill-berts has been a favorite for over 30 years.		3303 N Lamar Blvd	Daily 10-5	NA	1. What color are the bar stools? 2. What makes the hamburgers so HOT?
3 Jacob Leser House The original structure was built to house a soap and candle factory.		3506 West Ave. (private residence, please do not disturb the residents or their pets)	Not open to public	NA	1. What year was the house built? 2. What color are the window shutters?
4 Elisabet Ney Museum One of the oldest museums in Texas, it offers visitors a lovingly preserved glimpse into early Texas history and into the life of a spirited artist		304 East 44th St	Wed-Sat 10-5 Sun, Noon-5	Free, donations accepted	1. What name did Ney give her home? 2. What medium did Ney work in? 3. What work did she consider her legacy?
5 La Dolce Vita Gelato & Coffee Fun optional stop after the museum		4222 Duval St.	Daily 9am-midnight	NA	